Beth Wilson, Best-Selling Author, Integrative Life Coach and Women's Empowerment Expert, Launches New Web Site

Website Complements "Quantum Leaps," Wilson's Popular Internet Talk Radio Show, which moves to Voice America's Flagship Station

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif., May 1, 2008 – Beth Wilson, best-selling author of Meditations For New Mothers, integrative life coach and women's empowerment expert, whose approach to accelerated personal growth helps people connect and apply their newly acquired knowledge in a concrete way, today launched a new website, www.bethwilsonlifecoach.com. The website will provide advice to women seeking personal growth and creative, meaningful life change.

The new website complements "Quantum Leaps," the popular Internet radio talk show hosted by Wilson – who offers her listeners a new path for self-empowerment – on Voice America, the leading live Internet talk radio broadcaster. After launching in November 2007 on the Voice America Women's Network, "Quantum Leaps" went to number one in just 10 weeks, becoming one of the broadcaster's top-rated shows.

Wilson announced today that Voice America has moved "Quantum Leaps" to the channel's flagship station in recognition of its success. The show will continue to air every Thursday at 3 p.m. PST.

"At the rate it's growing, 'Quantum Leaps' could soon be the number one show on the entire network," said Voice America's Executive Producer, Sherryl Lin Haldy.

"My new website offers me a way to expand on the moving and thought-provoking conversations I enjoy with callers on my radio show and with my life coaching clients," said Wilson. "Both my website and radio show let me reach a larger audience so I can help people tap into their own intuitive powers and they can live more fulfilling, authentic lives."

Visitors to Wilson's website can sign up for her new ezine, "Teaming with Life," which covers personal growth and health topics. Distributed free to subscribers every two weeks, the ezine offers Wilson's unique perspective on subjects as varied as women's work/life balance, parenting issues and destructive relationships. The first issue of the ezine will cover the power of intuition.

As a bonus, ezine subscribers will receive a special report, "Five Ways Women Give Up Power – and How to Get it Back."

Wilson added that she will also use her website and ezine to remind people that "life is meant to be fun and enjoyable – and the good news is that each and every one of us has the power within to make it so!"

Wilson's new website will also provide information about her life coaching practice, upcoming personal appearances and her "Quantum Leaps" radio show.
